

Mahindra FES Nagpur Plant wins the Gold Award for Excellence in Manufacturing

Mahindra, FES, Nagpur plant, won the “Gold Award for Excellence in Manufacturing” at a grand awards ceremony organized by Economic Times on 27th January, 2010. Frost and Sullivan have instituted this award in collaboration with Economic Times to recognize organizations towards their journey of Competitiveness and Lean implementation. Mr. Sudhir Pathak, Sr. VP Manufacturing & Supply Management, and Mr. Lalit Verma, VP, FES Nagpur Plant received the award from Mr. Anand Rangachari, VP, Frost and Sullivan (Asia Pacific region) and Ms. Neeti Chopra, Editor, Economic Times.

Mr. Sudhir Pathak and Mr. Lalit Verma receiving the award

Mr. Pawan Goenka President AS & designate FES with Mr. Sudhir Pathak, Mr. Lalit Verma, Mr. Shrikant Dube, Mr. Sudhir Charaikar and Mr. Swapnil Walimbe

Frost and Sullivan has a robust, rigorous and highly acclaimed assessment process. A team of three highly qualified assessors conducted a three-day in-depth assessment at Nagpur plant from 12th to 14th November, 2009. Every process at Nagpur site was assessed, including peripherals of the plant. Team of Nagpur plant enthusiastically participated in the assessment process. Top management team, which included Mr.

Ramaswamy, Mr. Abhay Kulkarni, Mr. Shirvaikar, Mr. Vaidynathan and Mr. Atul Sohoni along with their key persons, participated in this assessment. During closing feedback, assessors expressed their satisfaction towards progress made by Nagpur plant towards “Lean Journey”.

Mr. Sudhir Pathak, Mr. Ashok Sharma EVP, SBQ, Mr. Lalit Verma, VP, Nagpur Plant and Mr. G. Murali, Sr. GM, Nagpur Plant facilitated the preparation of Nagpur team. Mr. Rajesh Deshapande, Mr. Shrikant Dube, Mr. Swapnil Walimbe of CDMM and Mr. Sudhir Charaikar of Business Excellence played an active role and guided the Nagpur team for assessment process for this award.